

SGDA Swiss Game Awards (SwiGA) Submission Guidelines 2020

The SGDA Swiss Game Awards honour projects that have put the Swiss game industry on the radar with excellence and innovation in the form of novel and disruptive ideas and follows an inclusive submissions policy. Eligible projects are playable games (all styles, genres and target platforms), services, middlewares, innovative collaborations, cutting-edge marketing ideas, groundbreaking commissioned or advertising productions as well as new collectives.

Submission requirements

1. At least 60% of the production costs must be accounted for by Swiss nationals or Swiss residents (Swiss passport, C-permit).
2. Your project is publicly available.
3. Your project has reached a significant milestone within the last 12 months.
4. There are no restrictions regarding the project's stage of development. Open betas or publicly available early access games are welcome and encouraged.
5. The submitted project was not part of a finalist round of an earlier SGDA Swiss Game Awards.

Competition rules

1. The contest is open to persons 18 years and older.
2. Several projects per person can be submitted.
3. Only finalists and the winner of the competition will be visible to the public. Other entered projects will not be open to the public.
4. You are either the owner of the submitted game's content and copyrighted material or have been given legal permission to submit your game's content. During the submission process, no entry materials become the property of the SGDA. The SGDA only receives a royalty-free license to use the entry materials in relation to the awards. Images and videos may be given a royalty-free licence to third parties in relation to the awards.
5. There is no fee to enter the competition.
6. Finalists will be notified through email. No correspondence about the competition will be entered into. The jury's decision is final and there is no right of legal appeal.
7. Non-cash awards cannot be converted into cash.

For questions contact the SGDA by sending a message to info@sgda.ch